

Press Release
For Immediate Release

Contact: Carolyn Turner, Special Events Coordinator
Carina Cellars
2900 Grand Avenue
Los Olivos, CA 93441
carolyn@carinacellars.com
(805) 688-2459

Artwork by Sean Kirkpatrick
Exhibition Dates: August 1-September 31
Artist Reception: Saturday August 4, 5:30-7pm

Carina Cellars is proud to welcome Santa Barbara artist Sean Kirkpatrick to the Tasting Room for the last show in their Summer Art Series. After graduating from art school in San Francisco, Kirkpatrick spent a number of years traveling throughout Europe as a teacher, surfer, musician and artist, after which he found himself settled in Santa Barbara. Throughout his travels Kirkpatrick accrued a multitude of colors and images, which with his chosen method of paint and pastels, he seeks to convey the energy and moods of his experiences. “My paintings are about atmosphere, mood and color; taking daily objects and giving them the ambience that we usually miss in our hurried pace. Everything has an undiscovered energy, and hopefully these pieces reflect that.”

With influences ranging from Edward Munch, and early Picasso to the sun-drenched walls of Southern France and California’s Central Coast, it’s easy to see why there are over 400 pieces of Kirkpatrick’s art owned and exhibited throughout the world. Yet it is the Central Coast that has truly captured his heart. “Through my travels and experiences I have always come back to it,” Kirkpatrick said. “In my work a lot of love for this part of the world is present, along with an outstretched hand to see the beauty of what lies here and is unfortunately, always threatened.” To view more of Sean’s artwork, please visit www.seankirkpatrick.com.

Please join us for our opening reception Saturday August 4 from 5:30-7PM at the Carina Cellars Tasting Room, 2900 Grand Avenue in Los Olivos. For more information check out www.carinacellars.com or call the tasting room at (805) 688-2459.

Attached Image Information:
“Deveroux in Winter Light”
Pastel