Artwork by Marisa Murrow
New Paintings
Exhibition Dates: June 1-July 31, 2009

Marisa Murrow was born in Los Angeles. She received her Bachelor of Fine Arts in 2000 from the Rhode Island School of Design. Shortly after graduation Murrow embarked on a trip throughout the world visiting Southeast Asia, Indonesia, Nepal, Europe, Africa and India. A traveler in her place of origin, Murrow collects visual information on site, producing small, intimate landscape paintings of trailer parks, swimming pools and the Southern California coastline. This body of work contains colors and light that are so specific to Los Angeles, they could be from nowhere else.

Murrow has exhibited her work at the California Heritage Museum, the McLean Gallery, Schomberg Gallery, Bergamot Station, LA Design Center, LACMA Rental Gallery, The Korean Cultural Center, Los Angeles Municipal Gallery, The Red House Gallery, the Folk Art Museum, Los Angeles, Gallery 825, Topo Ranch, Los Angeles Municipal Art Gallery and San Diego Art Institute, The Museum of the Living Artist, San Diego.

Join us for a wine tasting and enjoy Murrow's work from June 1-July 31 at the Carina Cellars Tasting Room, 2900 Grand Avenue in Los Olivos. For more information check out www.carinacellars.com or call the tasting room at (805) 688-2459.
